

Kaplan-Meier over all treated flasks. Three curves never descend: those laboratories recorded no flask below the limit in any arm, so no clearance time exists for them.

The three lowest starting densities are exactly the three laboratories that cleared. F kills faster than four of the other five and never clears.

Grey: laboratory alone. Arrow head: after adding starting density. Blue crosses from significant to not. Orange (C) stays significant and also has the fastest rate.