

Biphasic killing: the printed equation and its two corrections, all on Table 1 parameters

At t_c the printed second branch evaluates to exactly N_0 for any amount of phase-1 killing.

$t_c = \ln((1 - f)/f) / (k_{fast} - k_{slow})$. Crosses mark the values asserted in Results 3.3; neither lies on its own curve.