

Kaplan-Meier, all treated flasks, 100 uL plating. Three curves never descend: those laboratories recorded no flask below the floor in any arm, so no crossing time exists.

Grey: laboratory alone. Arrow head: after adding starting density. Blue crosses from significant to not. Orange (C) stays significant and also has the fastest rate.