

Model fitting: R-squared cannot separate the two models; residuals, AICc and profile likelihood can

Shaded band in E and F is the 95% likelihood interval. A band that reaches the edge of the searched range means the parameter is not determined by the data: the printed equation's t_c is unidentifiable in all four designs tested, and its fitted value sits on the optimiser bound in three of them.